Louie's Secret Ingredient

Sue Belletieri, better known as "Nana", has been the secret ingredient behind Louie's Restaurant since the beginning in 1958. Louie's has an excellent reputation for home-style Italian cuisine, from all our delicious dishes to our excellent service we have become an Allentown tradition.

We look forward to utilizing our great reputation to assist you with personal party planning from consultation to clean up. Whether it is a small business luncheon for ten people or a wedding for 200, we will work with you to design a menu that suits your individual needs, taste and budget.

At Louie's we treat you like family; and Nana wouldn't have it any other way. Please call us so we may discuss your next gathering.

Where will we cater? ... anywhere!

Home, Office or Anywhere

Louie's can cater your party just about anywhere. We can supply service staff, deliver and set up the party and pick up the equipment later, or even prepare a full meal for you to pick up at Louie's.

We are always expanding our list of catering facilities among these halls is the Barristers Club that we are a preferred caterer. Please ask for a list of location ideas.

Little Louie's Private Dining Room

Louie's private dining room is located above Louie's Restaurant in Allentown. With seating for 15 to 40 guests, Little Louie's is perfect for any type of gathering from business luncheons to rehearsal dinners. The room is tastefully decorated and set with linens and china. Five round tables seat up to seven adults with a beverage table, gift area and hot buffet section.

A $4 room charge per person applies to use of this room which includes all the table settings, glassware and soda & coffee service. With the side entrance located on Chew Street, this completely private non-smoking room gives your guests the relaxed atmosphere of your home with the elegance of a fine restaurant.

Ask for an appointment to view the facility.

Louie's Semi-Private Dining Area

Located in the front of Louie's, we often cater to small groups interested in an informal affair. This area is great for parties who wish to order off the regular menu or dine on our ever popular lunch buffet.

Prices are subject to change without notice.
